

Abstract

Title: Movement Games in Sports Training of Children

Objectives: Create a systemized inventory of movement games. Movement games categorized according to which football skills can developed. Verify popularity of the each movement game in simple questionnaire.

Methods: The literature search and data analysis. Also, quantitative research in the form of a simple questionnaire.

Results: Systematized inventory of 39 movement games with methodological descriptions. Each movement game has feedback in form of questionnaire result.

Key words: movement game, football, sports training, preschool age